WACHUSETT
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

The purpose of a community college is to enable high school graduates to further their education. Mount Wachusetts Community College has endeavored to make this searching for higher education fruitful and worthwhile. The opportunities for students are in Business Administration, Business Technology, Executive Secretarial, Engineering Technology, Liberal Arts and General Studies.

As Mount Wachusetts grows from its small campus consisting of one building to its future campus, the hope is that it has been able to graduate men and women who can work capably and successfully in the world today.

Mrs. Sylvia Miner
ADVISOR

A dedication can never be a proper tribute to a man for his sacrifice. Two years ago Dr. John Wuornen retired as Chairman of the history department, Columbia University, and moved, with his wife, to their cherished Elm street home. Then, to ease the inevitable first problems of Mount Wachusett Community College with his wisdom and experience, he accepted a new roll, Dean of Faculty, and delayed the golden years of writing, reverie, and just relaxation. To the dean our affectionate thank-you. We wish Dr. and Mrs. Wuorinen the eventual fulfillment of all their dreams.
